

North Carolina Teacher Evaluation Rubric 2011 – 2012

Camden County Sample Evidences

The Elements for the NC Teaching Standards, adopted by the State Board of Education, are in the yellow area. The descriptors for each element are in the white area under the ratings. The sample evidences, in the buff colored area, are examples for each element to assist teachers in performing their self assessments. They will also support principals in conducting observations. Teachers would not be expected to do all of the sample evidences. There may be other appropriate evidences that are not included in these samples.

DEVELOPING: Teacher has an awareness of the standards and may demonstrate evidence of proficiency in their classroom in some areas.

PROFICIENT: Teacher demonstrates competence on the standards in their classroom.

Accomplished and distinguished ratings demonstrate leadership and competency beyond the classroom.

ACCOMPLISHED: Teacher exceeds competence on the standards in their classroom. Teacher is a leader in the school.

DISTINGUISHED: Teacher significantly exceeds competence on the standards. Teacher is a leader in the school, district, region, and/or state.

Standard I: Teacher Demonstrates Leadership

a. Teachers lead in their classrooms. Teachers demonstrate leadership by taking responsibility for the progress of all students to ensure that they graduate from high school, are globally competitive for work and postsecondary education, and are prepared for life in the 21st Century. Teachers communicate this vision to their students. Using a variety of data sources, they organize, plan, and set goals that meet the needs of the individual student and the class. Teachers use various types of assessment data during the school year to evaluate student progress and to make adjustments to the teaching and learning process. They establish a safe, orderly environment, and create a culture that empowers students to collaborate and become lifelong learners.
